

---

---

Davender has a B.Tech in Engineering from IIT Kgp and a Master's degree in Management from Columbia University, New York. He was awarded University's Citation for being an outstanding graduate student

Positions held include Chief Monitoring Coordinator with World Bank and an UNDP Advisor in Ghana. In Australia since 1992, he worked for a Parliamentary Committee in NSW as a Specialist and then as Head of Investment Appraisal Centre of Excellence for NSW Government in Sydney. He is a Fellow of Australian Institute of Management.

Currently based in Sydney Australia, he is Executive Director of EZE Solutions Pty Ltd. Presently carrying out an assignment for World Bank as a Consultant on reforming the ICT Sector in Fiji. Also a team member for "gateway review" of a very large transport project in New Zealand.

